What is not insured?

The Insurer will not pay any claim that relates to:

- ✗ Directly or indirectly from not being allowed to board a flight, train, sea vessel, coach or bus, for any reason whatsoever.
- ✗ Directly or indirectly from depression, stress, anxiety or mental disorder.
- ✗ Events or situations known to you and your travelling companion(s), prior to taken out a policy or booking a trip which could mean you are unable to travel and could give rise to the cancellation of your trip.
- ✗ Bankruptcy/insolvency/liquidation of a tour operator, travel agent, transport company or accommodation supplier.
- ✗ Search and Rescue. Emergency evacuation/repatriation will only be covered for medical emergencies and only as authorised by the claims assistance service.
- ✗ You taking part in activities unless stated as covered in your Policy Documentation.
- ✗ Any sexually transmitted diseases.
- ✗ A tour operator failing to supply advertised facilities.
- ✗ Delay, detention, seizure or confiscation by customs or other officials.
- ✗ Any costs recoverable from another source.
- ✗ Suicide, attempted suicide, self-inflicted injury, excessive consumption of alcohol, use of drugs, alcohol or drug abuse, alcoholism, drug addiction, solvent abuse or your deliberate exposure to unnecessary danger (except in an attempt to save human life).
- ✗ The policy excess for each claim, which is shown in the schedule.
- ✗ Claims in any way caused by or resulting from an infectious or contagious disease, an outbreak of which has been declared a Public Health Emergency or International Concern (PHEIC) by the World Health Organization (WHO).

This exclusion shall apply to claims made after the date of any such declaration(s), other than where a relevant diagnosis has been made by a qualified medical practitioner before the date of any such declaration(s).

This exclusion will continue to apply until the WHO cancels or withdraws any relevant PHEIC.

This general exclusion applies to all sections of cover with the exception of Section 3 – Emergency Medical Expenses as long as, prior to your trip commencing, the Foreign and Commonwealth Office had NOT advised against all (but essential) travel to your intended destination.

Are there any restrictions on cover?

- < This policy is only available if you are a permanently resident in either Gibraltar, Spain or Portugal.
- < Exclusions apply – please refer to the policy wording for the full list of exclusions.
- < You and your travelling companions must meet the age limits for cover:
 -) Aged 79 or under (or max age under age 66 for durations of up to 90 days) for Annual Multi Trip (AMT) policies; or
 -) Aged 79 or under for Single Trip (ST) policies;
 -) Aged 70 in respect of Winter sports cover (optional)The age limits apply at the start date of your policy.
- < If you have any pre-existing medical conditions, you must declare these fully to us during the application process as part of the medical screening process.
- < You must not be travelling specifically to receive medical treatment during your trip, or in the knowledge that you will need medical treatment.
- < There will be no cover if the Foreign and Commonwealth Office are advising against travel to your destination.
- < Property claims are paid based on the value of the goods at the time you lose them and not on a “new for old” or replacement cost basis. Deductions will be made in respect of wear, tear and depreciation.

What are my obligations?

- You must provide full and accurate information to all questions asked. Your answers must be true to the best of your knowledge as your answers form part of this insurance contract and on which your premium is based.
- You must notify us immediately should you become aware of any change regarding your health between taking out this policy and the start of your trip i.e. you develop a new medical condition; this includes any condition under investigation or review where a diagnosis has not been received, or if an existing condition deteriorates.
- You have an obligation to notify us as soon as possible at any time during the period of insurance of any changes in your circumstances (medical or otherwise) prior to travel and each time you make arrangements to travel which may pose an increased risk to us, so that we may reassess your coverage relating to any trips you have booked or any trips you may book in the future.
-) You must follow the claims procedure which can be found in your policy documentation and in your schedule.
- If you are travelling to a country in the European Union, you should arrange to have an EHIC (European Health Insurance Card) issued and carry this with you when you travel. (If used in the event of a claim, an excess waiver would apply).

Where am I covered?

This insurance policy provides you with cover for travel to the region in the world specified in your schedule. This is subject to there being no restrictive travel advice from the Foreign and Commonwealth Office (FCO) This can be checked by visiting <https://www.gov.uk/foreign-travel-advice>. Or the World Health Organisation www.who.int has advised the public not to travel.

When and how do I pay?

- You must arrange for the premium to be paid prior to travelling in order for the policy schedule to be issued and cover to be operative.
- Payment can be made by bank transfer or debit/credit card.

When does the cover start and end?

- For Single Trip (ST) policies - Cancellation cover starts as soon as you purchase your policy. All other sections of cover start when you commence your trip. Cover ceases on your return to your home following your trip. The start and end dates of your trip will be shown on your policy schedule. The maximum trip length is 180 days.
- For Annual Multi Trip (AMT) policies - All cover including cancellation cover starts on your chosen start date and the policy will expire 12 months later. The start and end dates of your policy will be shown in your policy schedule. The maximum trip length is 31 days as standard cover. Super Cover is 45 days with the option to extend to 60 or 90 (under age 66) days if an additional premium is paid and noted in your schedule.

How do I cancel the contract?

- You may cancel this insurance by writing to your broker within 14 days of the inception date stated in your schedule. You will receive a refund providing no claim has been made, intended to be made or and no incident likely to result in a claim and the policy has not expired. We reserve the right to deduct from any rebate of premium the necessary costs incurred in processing the original sale and cancellation.
- We may terminate your insurance at any time for a valid reason by sending you 14 days written notice.
